Media Information Pack 2024

Wildside is published by Herefordshire Wildlife Trust, the county's largest membership organisation. It is three times a year and is circulated to our 7,000 members, corporate supporters, local and regional media outlets, celebrity ambassadors, local decision makers and community hubs. Wildside delivers high quality content on conservation projects, wildlife information and special features such as interviews, editorials and guides from Herefordshire Wildlife Trust and beyond.

About Herefordshire Wildlife Trust

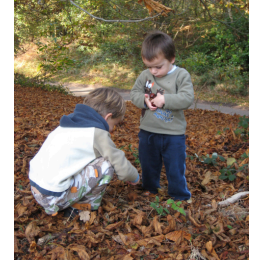

At Herefordshire Wildlife Trust, our vision is for a county that is bursting at the seams with wonderful wildlife and our mission is to put nature into recovery. Managing 60 Nature Reserves, covering over 530 hectares of land reserved for wildlife, The Trust has been taking action for nature in the county for over 60 years. From supporting farmers to find nature friendly solutions, advising local community groups on their green spaces, providing outreach and restoring habitat features like ponds and orchards, The Trust is dedicated to restoring and celebrating Herefordshire's unique natural heritage.

Reader Profile

Herefordshire Wildlife Trust has a broad and varied supporter base featuring young families, students through to those who have retired. What joins our members together is that they all share a love of nature; our members show an active concern for the protection of our precious natural heritage and are passionate about taking action for nature in order to put it into recovery. They appreciate and value what nature has to offer and enjoy the benefits of the outdoors in a relaxed way.
